Bodies of nine terrorists disposed of: Patil

Staff Reporter

Mumbai: Maharashtra Home Minister R.R. Patil said in the Assembly on Tuesday that bodies of the nine deceased terrorists of the 26/11 attacks were "disposed of" in January.

Confirming the disposal of the bodies, Ujjwal Nikam, Special Public Prosecutor in the 26/11 case, told The Hindu that the bodies were "buried" but he did not know the location.

Senior police officers refused to comment. Anti-Terrorism Squad chief Rakesh Maria was not available for comment.

Deven Bharti, Additional Commissioner of Police, said: "I will not speak a single word on this."
