The chargesheet in the November 26, 2008, Mumbai terror attacks [\[Images\]](#) was finally filed in court number 19 of the additional metropolitan magistrate M J Mirza on Wednesday afternoon.

More than seven sackfuls of papers were brought to the court-room in the historic case. Public prosecutor Ujjwal Nikam along with officers from the Mumbai crime branch were present in the court-room.

The 11,500-page single chargesheet clubs 12 terrorism cases and provides convicting evidence of the involvement of elements from Pakistan in the Mumbai terror attacks.

Ajmal Kasab, the lone surviving terrorist, was not produced in court.

PTI adds: Three months after the terror attacks which claimed over 160 lives here, Mumbai police today filed the charge-sheet in the case naming 38 people including Pakistani nationals Mohammed Ajmal Amir Kasab [\[Images\]](#) and suspected mastermind Zaki-ur-Rehman Lakhvi.

Indian nationals Fahim Ansari and Sabbauddin Ahmed, arrested in the case for allegedly carrying out a reconnaissance of the targets for the attacks, have been named in the chargesheet. They were produced in the court.

Lakhvi, the suspected mastermind of the 26/11 carnage who is believed to be hiding in Pakistan, and Lashkar-e-Tayiba [\[Images\]](#) operative Yusuf Muzzamil are mentioned in the chargesheet as wanted accused in the case.

The 11,500-page chargesheet was filed in the Esplanade court but Kasab, the lone surviving terrorist, was not produced before the court owing to security reasons.

Public Prosecutor Ujjwal Nikam said 38 people have been named in the chargesheet.

The Crime Branch, in the chargesheet filed before metropolitan magistrate M J Mirza, has said that Kasab, an alleged Lashkar-e-Tayiba operative, and others were involved in the terror strikes.

Kasab and other accused have been booked under various sections of the Indian Penal Code. They have also been charged with waging war against the country and offences under the Customs Act, Explosives Act and other Acts.

Is there any history of justice done in the Indian courts? The case will go on for 5 years....and then kasab will ask for the charge sheet to be translated into Urdu saying he dont know english, they will take another two years to translate it spending crores of taxpayers money...and agian the case will start from square one...and Kasab will say he dont remember things because its more than 10 years from the incident happen and.....on and on...

Now that the chargesheet has been finally filed one can foresee the elimination of kasab in a fake encounter and LeT being blamed for it again..ad nauseam.

7 sacks of 11,500-page chargesheet filed. Kasab should be first asked to read all his charges. He might not finish it in this lifetime. Who did so much of copy and paste. Could it not have been a simple document with fewer pages and more clearly pronounced charges.

delhi, ahmedabad, mumbai, assam and crpf camp.& 26/11... these strikes happened almost every month till 26/11 and then its all peace since last 3 month... does it indicate that congress was not taking action for civilians cause or it was also pushing it somehow..... THINK

Now that you have taken this point...I must tell you that I had a similar feeling....

Thr were terrorist attacks almost every month. But all of a sudden no attacks since 26/11. Is it because Pak is behind the attacks and they are already under so much international pressure that they cannot afford make any more terrorist attacks.
