MUMBAI: The special court hearing the 26/11 case heard the testimony of a police naik on Monday who said a six-member police team waited outside Cama Hospital while gunmen were on the rampage inside.

A policeman, Suresh Kadam, said, "When we went towards the hospital there was firing and hand grenades explosions. We decided to wait outside because we expected the terrorists to come out of the hospital any moment. When they jumped out of the gate, I thought they were photographers because of their backpacks." Gunman Ajmal Amir Kasab was seen smiling at some answers.
