Contrary to initial reports that Ajmal Ameer Kasab, the only Mumbai attacker captured alive, was badly wounded in the encounter and lost a lot of blood, doctors have said that's not the case.

"He had some aberrations and bruises on his upper and lower limbs. He did not have any bullet injury and did not require surgery. He was given treatment on the spot and there has been no active treatment on him after that," said Ravi Ranade, dean of B Y L Nair hospital.

This assumes significance because Kasab is a crucial link in the conspiracy and it's his interrogation that, police officers feel, is vital towards unravelling the plot.

In fact, Kasab played dead for a while after he was nabbed following an encounter at Girgaum Chowpatty near Marine Drive, and showed no regret about his actions, officers who questioned him initially told The Indian Express.
