trial.

The prosecution examined inspector Bhagwat Bansode of Marine Drive police station, who had registered the complaint.

According to Bansode, on the day of the attacks, he was patrolling the Vidhan Bhavan area when he heard firing at Trident and rushed to the spot with five other policemen. On entering the hotel near Tiffin restaurant inside Oberoi wing of the hotel, he saw two terrorists firing indiscriminately and it was only then that he realised it was a terror attack.

Bansode told the court that on November 27, commandos had taken charge of the operations against the terrorists from the police. Bansode said he then returned to the police station to register the complaint and returned to the hotel where he was posted for two more days.

The prosecution also examined Salim Attarwala who lost his parents in the attack near Nariman House. Attarwala said he stayed at a nearby building and on 26/11 his parents on hearing the gunshots rushed to the fourth floor of the building to figure out what was happening. It was then that they were shot by the terrorists. They died on the spot, Attarwala said.

The other witness examined was a representative from Nokia, whose identity has been withheld for security reasons. He deposed about getting records of mobile phones used by the terrorist and seized by the Mumbai Police, from the company's office in China. The details showed that the mobile phones were shipped to Pakistan from China.

The prosecution has examined 209 witnesses in the case till date.
