Mumbai: An important 26/11 evidence vanished within months of the attack and Indian investigators could do little about it.

Al-Hussaini, the vessel used by the 26/11 terrorists to reach Gujarat from Karachi, was sunk in the sea in 2009. Worried that it could help investigators gather evidence against them, the LeT, which owned the vessel, destroyed it. At least 14 people, including the 10 terrorists who attacked Mumbai on November 26, 2008, set sail from Karachi to Mumbai in Al-Hussaini. As the vessel neared Gujarat, the terrorists hijacked an Indian fishing trawler, MV Kuber.

Mohammed Ajmal Amir Kasab, the lone terrorist who was hanged in November last year, was part of this group. After the hijacking, the terrorists transferr
