Mumbai, Dec 02: Azamal Amir Kasab, the terrorist who was caught alive by security forces, on Tuesday made some more startling disclosures regarding his group's deadly terror strikes in Mumbai. According to reports, the 21-year-old terrorist, who hails from Pakistan's Faridkot, told the investigating agencies that they had divided themselves in two groups and each group was allotted different work.

Elaborating further, Kasab told interrogators that one group shot video of important targets in Mumbai and the other conducted recce of those places as many as four times.

Based on the information collected through these methods, his associates then prepared their blueprint for attacks, Kasab revealed.

The terrorist, who had earlier confessed during interrogation that they had planned to blow up the historic Taj Mahal Hotel, further disclosed that the famous Leelawati Hospital was their next target.

He also revealed that as many as 17 militants left Karachi for India in one plane and out of which seven went missing after the security forces' crackdown on terrorists.

Although he refused to divulge details about the missing terrorists, it is now believed that they all might have fled to Pakistan.

Kasab disclosed that they planned to hold foreign nationals and NRIs as hostage so as to compel authorities to allow other militants entering the territory an easy passage.

He also said that they had brought enough explosives with them to blow up the Taj building.

Kasab had earlier told investigating officials that they wanted to replicate Islamabad's JW Marriot Hotel attack, do a 9/11 in India, and reduce the Taj Hotel building – a symbol of India's economic prosperity – to rubble.

Azam and his accomplice had opened fire at Mumbai's CST station last Wednesday night before moving to Metro Cinema and then to Girgaum Chowpatty in a stolen car. There, they were intercepted by a team from the Gamdevi police station. In the ensuing encounter, Kasab's accomplice was killed and he himself was injured and caught alive.

The lone terrorist nabbed by National Security Guards (NSG) commandos has reportedly told his Mumbai Police interrogators that he and his 39 colleagues were given the impression that they would come back alive after carrying out their mission of mayhem in India's commercial capital.

According to Kasab, Lashkar-e-Taiba had trained all terrorists in marine warfare. As per one report, they received training in a special course called Daura-e-Shifa which converts a routine terror strike and into a specialized commando raid.

According a newspaper report, Kasab has revealed the name of his fellow jihadis, all Pakistani citizens, as Abu Ali, Fahad, Omar, Shoaib, Umer, Abu Akasha, Ismail, Abdul Rahman (Bara) and Abdul Rahman (Chhota).
