

ARCHIVE

Parambir Singh to move court against Gafoor's outburst

Agencies : Mumbai, Sat Nov 21 2009, 17:10 hrs

Telekom Festnetz-Kunde?

Zweitkarte für mobiles Surfen und iPad mini zum Aktionspreis sichern! www.t-mobile.de/CombiCard

Ads by Google

Like 0

G +

SU

Reddit

TOP STORIES

Sahara chief Subrata Roy moves Supreme Court for cancellation of arrest warrant

AAP announces second list of candidates, Rajmohan Gandhi to contest from East Delhi

Admiral DK Joshi was disturbed, requested me to accept resignation: AK Antony

Narendra Modi beats Rahul Gandhi in popularity, says US think tank

Rahul Gandhi slams Salman Khurshid over 'impotent' remark against Narendra Modi

Inspector General of Police Parambir Singh is planning to take legal recourse against former Commissioner of Police Hassan Gafoor for his remarks that he and other senior officers dithered from "responding to the situation" during the 26/11 terror attack.

"What Gafoor has said was malicious and incorrect and I will soon take legal action against him for defaming me," said Singh, former Additional Commissioner of Police (ATS).

In an interview to a magazine, Gafoor had said "a section of senior police officers refused to be on the ground and take on the terrorists.

NATION WORLD BUSINESS CITIES SPORTS ENTERTAINMENT LIFESTYLE

Apart from Singh, Gafoor had taken the names of Additional Commissioner of Police (Crime) Deven Bharti, former Joint Commissioner of Police (Law and Order) K L Prasad and former Additional Commissioner of Police (Southern Region) K Venkateshan.

"I have submitted my role to the Pradhan Committee and I am sure it has been mentioned in their report submitted to the government," Singh, currently posted as IGP at the Konkan region, said.