Advani blames intelligence agencies for Mumbai terror attacks

PTI Nov 28, 2008, 06:30pm IST

NEW DELHI: Senior BJP leader L K Advani on Friday blamed the intelligence agencies for Mumbai terror attacks, saying their preoccupation with "Hindu terror" helped the terrorist plot go undetected.

"It now appears that a mobile phone with a terrorist is of Pakistani origin. This reinforces the fact that intelligence agencies' energy is being diverted to nail the so-called Hindu terror which evidently enabled the Mumbai attackers' plot go undetected", Advani said in a statement today.

Accusing the UPA of not being serious about tackling terror, he said, "The government's non-serious approach is reinforced by reports that the Mumbai attackers arrived in the city by the sea route."

He also urged the Prime Minister Manmohan Singh to convene a meeting of Chief Ministers to chalk out a strategy to contain the new danger of sea-borne terror.

"I again urge the PM to summon a conference of CMs of all states on the western coast line to activate a firm strategy to deal with the new threat of sea-borne terror," he said.

The BJP's Prime Ministerial candidate expressed hope that the Government, even at the fag end of its tenure, would devise a robust and zero tolerance policy to tackle terrorism.

Advani said that apart from strengthening and streamlining the intelligence network, the Government needs to take whatever intelligence inputs it receives seriously and act upon it.
