New Delhi: Abu Jundal, suspected Lashkar-e- Taiba`s (LeT) terrorist and one of the masterminds of 26/11 attacks, on Monday claimed before a Delhi court that the NIA (/tags/nia.html) and Maharashtra Police had forced him to sign some documents and blank papers.

Jundal, who is also known as Sayed Zabiuddin Ansari, told this to District Judge I S Mehta after he was produced through video conferencing from Mumbai's Arthur Road jail, where he is presently lodged, in connection with an alleged conspiracy to launch terror strikes in the country, court sources said.

They said court has fixed the matter for further hearing on January 18. Meanwhile, the National Investigation Agency (NIA) supplied the copy of charge sheet filed against Jundal to his counsel M S Khan.

Jundal was chargesheeted by NIA for offences punishable under the Indian Penal Code (IPC) and the Unlawful Activities (Prevention) Act for allegedly attempting to recruit persons through Internet for joining banned outfit LeT and carrying out terror activities in India.

In its charge sheet, the NIA has said that in and around 2005, Jundal along with his associate Kagzi joined LeT and in November 2005, they went to Nepal to meet LeT commander Abdul Aziz and received a three-day training of bomb assembling and IED making from him.

It claimed that after returning to India, Jundal fled to Pakistan via Bangladesh and stayed in Karachi and in LeT's headquarters in Muridke.

He did three training courses in LeT training camp and came in touch with LeT top
